

Finding your Genius Within

Here at the good ship Genius we like to celebrate our “Genius Within”.

Finding out what your strengths are and what motivates you can be really important when considering your next steps to getting back into employment

As it is Employability day we thought we would share with you how you can explore your own “Genius Within” by understanding what you are like when you are at your best.

When I am working at my best

When I am working at my best....

Environment – where am I?

Behaviour – what am I doing?

Skills – What do I do well?
What have I practiced?

Values – what is important? What do I believe?

Identity – who am I? What is my purpose?

Individual approach

We are all different

.... so the best support is individualised.

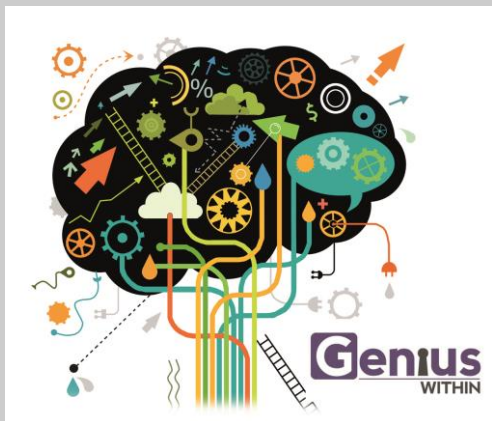

What do we cover?

Coaching:

Find your Employable Genius...

Humans are wonderfully unique, especially in the way we process the world around us using our senses!

Understanding this process is the key to finding YOUR GENIUS... the things that make you tick...

And the way that You work @ YOUR BEST

The Employable Genius course encourages you to identify how you interpret and process information to identify what your own unique strengths are, this is YOUR GENIUS

Understanding your Genius will...

Help you set achievable goals

Build confidence in applying for job roles

Find suitable jobs based on your Genius

Help you to identify a career path

Within the course you will use your Genius to think about goal setting and career planning that is right for you!

The Employable Genius course will cover strategies for:

Goal setting
Confidence Building
Motivation
Finding employment

Time management
Memory
Organisation
Stress management

Let's discover YOUR Genius!
